Moſcow, December 17. N. S.

HEre are Letters from Vice-Chancellor Schaphiroff, dated from Adrianople the Twenty ſeventh of November, giving Advice, that the King of Sueden was ſtill at Tender, being unwilling to leave the Turkiſh Territories; but, that the ſaid Vice-Chancellor was going to Conſtantinople, in hopes to prevail with the Sultan to haſten the Departure of his Swediſh Majeſty; and, that he had received Aſſurances of its being accompliſhed, as ſoon as Aſoph and the adjacent Forts were evacuated, and delivered up to the Turkiſh Forces; and after that, Schaphiroff himſelf in expectation of returning Homewards. Here has been great Feaſting, Bonefires, and Diſcharge of Artillery for ſeveral Days together, upon the Account of the Marriage of the Hereditary Prince of Muſcovy with the Princeſs Charlotte Sophia, Daughter of Duke Lewis of Wolfenbuttel, and Grand-Daughter of the Duke-Regent of Wolfenbuttel, and Siſter to the Empreſs now Reigning.

Hamburg, Jan. 19. N. S. Our laſt Letters from Pomerania, which came hither on the Fifteenth, ſay, that the Town of Roſtock would be charged this Winter with the Maintaining of Three thouſand Danes, and a Magazine would be eſtabliſhed there for the Subſiſtance of the Troops which are to remain in Mecklenburg; and, that the King of Poland had demanded an Hundred and fifty thouſand Crowns from the Towns of Ancklam and Gripſwald. But the Baron de Kniphauſen, in the Name of his Maſter the King of Pruſſia, had made preſſing inſtances to the King of Denmark, that he would not take up his Winter-Quarters in thoſe Countries. Upon the Nineteenth of this Month, the two Kings of Denmark and Poland took their Leave of each other, and the former was on his Journey to Guſtrow. Four thouſand Men are to remain before Wiſmar, and the reſt are to take their Quarters in Holſtein. The Paſs of Damgarten has been demoliſh'd by Order of the King of Denmark; and all the Bridges broken down between that and Tribbeſes. We have ſince had freſher Advices, that the Army of the King of Denmark encamp'd the Tenth of this Inſtant at Schwain, within three Leagues of Roſtock; and upon the Sixteenth it was expected near Wiſmar, from whence they are to purſue their March to Holſtein; and, according to the Diſpoſition of them that is ſaid to be already made, the Foot are to have their Winter-Quarters from Rendesbourg to the Leſſer Belt. The Miniſters of Great Britain, Holland, Pruſſia, and Hanover, upon the Fifteenth were arriv'd at Guſtrow, where his Daniſh Majeſty was expected the next day, from whence he was to proceed to Swerin, and thence to Rendesbourg; but it was not yet reſolved whether his Majeſty would reſide this Winter at Coldinguen, or would paſs over to Copenhagen. The Ambaſſador of the Czar of Muſcovy has aſſur'd the K. of Denmark that his Maſter will, in a little time, pay him the Sum of Eight hundred thouſand Roubles, and that he would advance more Mony towards refitting the Daniſh Fleet, ſo that it might be in a readineſs to Act very early the next Campaign. They write from Guſtrow, that fifteen Tranſport Veſſels, laden with Men and Ammunition of War, were lately arriv'd at Wiſmar, from the Iſle of Rugen. The Elector of Hanover has given Permiſſion for all Sorts of Merchandizes to be carried from hence into his Dominions; and the ſame has been notify'd to the Senate by his Miniſter.

From the Daniſh Camp before Schwain, Jan. 13. N. S. The Daniſh and Saxon Army decamp'd from before Stralſund upon the Seventh of this Month, and March'd in ſeveral Columns. after having burnt their Baracks and Forrage, which gave Occaſion to the Town about an Hour afterwards, to make a Sally with the greateſt part of their Cavalry, and fall upon their Rear; but finding that all things were rightly diſpoſed, they retir'd back after ſome light Skirmiſhes. The Army encamp'd that Night near Reinichen, within two Leagues of Stralſund, where the Saxon and Muſcovite Troops ſeparated themſelves from the Daniſh Army, which purſued its March, and came upon the Twelfth within two Leagues of Roſtock, where it will remain until the Fifteenth Inſtant. The Saxon and Muſcovite Troops continue in their Poſts about Stralſund, and it is ſaid they deſign to keep them all this Winter.

Berlin, Jan. 16. N. S. The King of Poland paſt by this Place on Thurſday laſt Incognito, with Count Lagnaſco; but has left General Fleming behind him, whom he lately promoted to the Dignity of Velt Marſhal: This General has had frequent Conferences with Monſieur Kamke, his Pruſſian Majeſty's Privy Counſellor, concerning the Subſiſtance of the Saxon and Muſcovite Troops, which remain in Pomerania.

Hannover, Jan. 19. N. S. The King of Denmark has ſent a Colonel hither to requeſt a Paſſage for his Army through the Country of Saxe Lawenburg, which was granted by his Electoral Highneſs; and the Colonel is gone hence with Orders for the Daniſh Army, that are to be Quarter'd in Holſtein, Jutland, and other Places belonging to the King of Denmark's Territories.

Hague, Jan. 26. N. S. The lateſt Advices from Conſtantinople import, that a Divan had been aſſembled there, to conſider what was moſt proper to be done in favour of his Suediſh Majeſty. They likewiſe add, that upon the Twenty-fourth of November laſt, Mehemet Bacha, the Grand Vizir, was depoſed at Adrianople, and was afterwards carried Priſoner to the Seven Towers. Monſieur de Mourmount, one of the Plenipotentiaries of the States, who was choſen by the Province of Frizeland, is at preſent very much indiſpoſed, which has hindered his intended Journey for Utrecht. Count Singerling, who is arriv'd here, being nominated as the third Plenipotentiary to aſſiſt on the Part of the Emperor, at the General Treaty of Peace, being upon the Road hither, receiv'd an Expreſs from the Emperor, with a Relation of the Raiſing the Siege of Cardona, and the Advantage which the Troops of the Allies had over the Enemy, which is agreeable in all Parculars, with the Accounts that have been heretofore given of that Action. The laſt Advices from Vienna import, that two Spies were Seiz'd at Peterwaradin,
